

Ego

- Ego is not pride [itself a questionable trait of humanity having its root in the Dark]
- Ego is not glamor, opulence, superiority, or wisdom; On the contrary it is your inner child, a highly sensitive, irrational, unintuitive, toddler with extreme sense of insecurity, personal weakness, lack of experience, or wisdom that will breaks down at a drop of a hat, crying and throwing temper tantrums, alerting you of its perceived outside danger, and compelling you to respond to the supposed outside stimulus or stimuli by you taking action in order to remedy the said mainly contrived external 'danger.'
- Ego is the inner child within that constantly seeks attention, to be pampered and listened to and often presumes haughty to be able to give you advice and new directions for you to act upon.
- The truth of matter is that it is nothing more than an alarm clock bestowed upon us by our Creator to watch out for us so we are not subject to abuse, by unpleasantly ringing within us with disconcerting cries of discomfort and insecurity; and nothing else.
- It is, in fact, easily toiled with and put into self-serving manipulation by the Dark energies readily available in our realm of duality, the lower consciousness paradigm of our present existence [up to 4th dimension], at least physically.
- It is not to be consulted, indulged with, or not even attended to; except for the possible graceful presence of acknowledgment of the sound of alarm that it intends to awaken you of regarding its perceived external surroundings.
- Ego is neither a guru nor a sentient form of existence. It has no consciousness of its own, neither it is privy to accessing yours. It has no acquired wisdom through experimentation and learning in this or other lifetimes of your existence to retrieve from. It is not multi-dimensional to be able to call up or log on to the cosmos whatsoever.

- It is indigenous to 3-dimensional paradigm of duality only, which is further and readily stimulated by the condition of bondage enriched with negative energies under which we currently live in.
- Upon ascension to the 5th dimensional or higher realms of consciousness with their higher vibration rates we will not have any need for the existence of ego within us. For this reason it shall be purged from our emotional bodies forever or until the time we would choose reincarnating within third dimensionality!
- Therefore, it has nothing to offer you in terms of knowledge or acumen.
- In fact, if you do not adequately discipline its tantrums it will soon become an instrument of the dark coercing you into accepting all sorts of Dark pitfalls such as insecurity, anger, conflict, and even violence.
- And it is through such dark mechanisms that it induces you to take up a defensive posture regarding otherwise silly and insignificant stimuli which are met with mobilization and make you portray yourself as confrontational and engaging to others.
- Soon you find yourself in an atmosphere of conflict and futile verbal discourse. After a short time, there is no going back. The very same impetus that dragged you to such unfortunate circumstances finds or manufactures enough fuel to augment the fire of skirmish, at the same time claiming righteousness and illusion of being prevailed.
- Ego is often the catalyst for accumulating karma and unresolved sensations within the emotional body which can even transfer from lifetime to lifetime.
- It is the main cause of DNA/RNA damage through imposition of memory implants which are extremely difficult to clear and therefore cleans the emotional body.
- Often when the unresolved issues are confronted, the person has gone through amnesia, forgetting the details of the problems to be resolved.
- These are the deeply regressed emotions that are not unlike 'curses' that haunt the soul in a sequence of lifetime of incarnations, one after another.
- The idea is to 'resolve' and not accumulate such embedded heavy and dark emotions that need to be cleansed from the emotional body before a soul has the slightest chance to ascend to higher dimensional planes of existence (5th and higher) which we commonly refer to as the 'heaven.' Otherwise it is a journey back to 3-dimensional reality and the realm of pure physical existence, again and again until the soul properly learns its lessons through experimentation and re-experiencing the same mundane life and reality.

- And living in the 3D is not fun. First of all it is riddled with duality, in which both Light and Dark energies coexist. It is the domicile of Lucifer, one who is the catalyst for all evil and negativities. If you join him, he rewards you with riches and lust at the expense of making a slave out of you, and plunges you so deep in the Dark energies which drastically diminishes your consciousness that takes eons of benevolent Light work to recover you from the damages that Dark has ingrained within you.
- Such a choice is of course not a consideration for us as we are all beings of LIGHT. We all originate from the high heaven initially (11th dimension). We are not comfortable by the paradigm of Dark living as it goes against the very fabric of our existence. We find their practices to be diabolic and extremely cruel, and we are neither conditioned nor inherently prone to accept such treatments.
- The second form that the Dark influences our life is through Dark energies that have a tendency to appeal to our vanity which resides towards the other side of our spectrum of polarity. As the crown jewel of creation in the Universe, we have the most extreme range of emotional tendencies, unlike any other form of sentience in the Universe.
- Although we are beings of Light, we are here on Earth to get a lesson in duality and in learning how to cope with the Dark energies. This is actually the third time around for humanity to participate in the 'Grand Experiment' of 'Polarity Integration' in the Universe. The first occurred in the Vega System in the Constellation of Lyra which met with disaster leading to annihilation of the 'First Earth.' The second Grand Experiment was conducted in the Pleiades in the Seven Sisters Cluster which also met with catastrophe and destruction of not only the 'Second Earth; [both of these planets were actually called "Avyone," named after the creators of the human vessel], but also Sirius A and many other planets then inhabited by our human ancestors.

- We are currently in the 3rd Grand Experiment. Apart from vacillating slightly to the Dark here and there, we have not succumbed to the temptation of falling prey to the Dark. Apart from a minute fraction of our human civilizations who have sold their proverbial soul to the devil, and they are currently openly enslaved by the Dark Cabal/Illuminati, all other humans, no matter how misguided and superstitious they may appear to be, they are still within the Light. And, this is not their fault as they have been lied to, misinformed, manipulated, and controlled by the Dark Cabal for the past 13,000 years, after the demise of Atlantis.
- Anyway, getting back to the main topic at hand, which is ego and its catalytic role in attracting the dark, care has to be taken as to totally expurgate its influence in decision making and such endeavors as its inclusion will only lead to separation and self-destruction. The securities that lurk within are the result of annexation of ego within the mental body. With recognizing its triviality, one can exercise rationality, or better yet, intuitiveness, that can lead to self-confidence, self-respect, empowerment, and resolution respectively. And resolution serves to reduce the burden of carrying 'excess baggage' for this or future lifetimes. We have come a long way during the past 13 millennia learning from duality with repeated personal experimentation that karma and accumulation of Dark energy is not wise and only leads to deterioration of health and loss of precious divine energy bestowed upon us by our very benevolent Creator. In fact, if you examine the very essence of 'life' and 'consciousness' you will find we are all 'alive' thanks to the inpouring of divine Light energies upon our planet by our conscious sun and by our even higher conscious central sun and by such celestial 'life' keepers such as Alcyone in Pleiades, etc. We are to preserve and be guardians of our divine energies within our chakras and our auric system.
- It is through such negative tendencies mostly created or exasperated by our ego that we attract negative energies to us. The Universal law of attraction states that like energies (or vibration frequencies) attract (or resonate with) one another while contrasting energies repel one another. When you submit to your ego, you begin to 'allow' the inflow of dark energies within you.

These energies are dissipative from the point of view of the Light and are vampiric in nature that 'feed' the Dark. The Dark entities are deprived of divine Light energies. They cannot receive the Light energies, which are essential for continuation of life and consciousness. Therefore, they project through their thought Dark energies that if allowed, bombard a sentient being of Light and act as a source of attraction devouring our much needed Light energies.

- The Light being is gifted with the power of creation through thought and emotions. If you think about something you would wish to see manifest, you announce your desire to the cosmos, provided that such thought is met with a positive response of the sentient 'collective' that share the same reality or lifetime with you, you can definitely be assured that such a reality manifest itself for you. This has a proviso that first of all you must be 100% assured about your vision without the slightest possibility of doubt. Secondly, your desire must not be such as to cause harm to any other soul, and must have within it the intention of GOOD FOR ALL. Thirdly, it must not be of selfish, self-serving, self-indulging nature dictated by concepts of profiteering and manipulation as to serve only the One, you. With practice and with experience one gets 'credit' within the cosmos, which determines how soon a particular thought or desire comes to reality. Archangel Metatron, who is the Lord of Light, and oversees the creation of ALL THAT THERE IS, who is second only to God, as well as other prominent deities say that it only takes 144,000 souls who resonate together to create a parallel dimension of reality to experience their lifetimes together.
- Although mankind is gifted with the talent of creation through projection of thoughts, it is the 'collective' that ensures the manifestation of an outcome or the entire reality. Nothing is set in the stone by God. All that there is, is pre-created by God; there is a myriad of probabilities that are set into motion by you. When you resort to negativity and venture in doubt, skepticism, dark interpretation or whatever that may be proven to be the incipient point and the reagent for creating conflict, you begin on a path of self-destruction that adds to your karma and unresolved issues within your emotional body which gives away your precious divine life energies by creating auric bleeding.

- Furthermore, it makes your otherwise perfect chakric and energetic system out of balance which is the very same cause for disease. It drives your certain local biological cells to get totally out of sequence and disharmonious which not only causes pain and discomfort; but also reduces the longevity of your present physical existence. In many cases, this un-seemingly important phenomenon of lack of energetic synchronization causes cancerous cells and other problems within the physical body. And, as it was said before, karma recodes and damages your RNA/DNA.
- So, it is all up to you. You create your reality. You are the boss. You are the only one that can do it. God has bestowed the gift of thoughts and emotions on to you which are the required constituents for creation. He/She does not interfere with you beyond that.
- God does not condone judgment. He/She has set up the Universe in such a perfect way that there is no need for 'Judgment Day' or punishment. He/ She bestowed upon you a sense of conscience, which is the GODSPARK within you. All you ever need in the cosmos for eons of time to come are already WITHIN you. All you need is to consult your HIGHERSELF, which resides in the seat of your conscience. It carries the knowledge, the experiences, and the consciousness of all that you have ever been in this lifetime, from all your incarnations, and much more. You are only a very small aspect of YOU resonating in the lowest harmonic universe HU1. There are other 'aspects' of YOU who are simultaneously living within the very harmonic universe you live in, as well as other 'expressions' of YOU vibrating in and out of existence in higher harmonic universes resonating at much higher natural frequencies of existence.
- So do not be small-minded. Do not listen to the temper tantrum of a small insecure inner child. Ego only exists in lower dimensions. It is eradicated in higher dimensions as there is no need for its existence. There is no competition, no insecurity, no anger, no fear, and no perceived illusory need for 'survival.' There is no conflict. There is only compassion and unconditional love, the very neutralizer of fear, anger, and hatred. It is through compassion that fear of competition and supremacy is transmuted. In contrast, it accentuates cooperation, Oneness, harmony, and synchronization. It entices the formation of a 'collective' of individuals resonating with one another in harmony. What transpires is individuality, but within a collective that 'shares' its findings readily and candidly, adding to the strength and power of the whole.

- Judgment is the very one thing that God asks you to refrain from as He/She does not do. Judgment is often another source for inviting the Dark into your life experience. It germinates a source of insecurity within you, which in turn leads you to defensiveness, conflict and eventual unhappiness. When the Almighty abstains from judgment and leaves the task to one's conscience, why do we seek to be judgmental? Is it the intention of clearing old unresolved issues that propel us to such unsound undertaking? If yes, it is commendable that we finally embark on such endeavor; however, is there a better, more direct, sound, compassionate way that we can resort to which will culminated in a proper cleansing more in line with what is ordained by the Almighty? It needs to be emphasized that it is only positive cleansing according to the principles of Light that is effective for clearing the emotional body from embedded anger and discord. Otherwise, regurgitation of the same without compassionate intent for cleansing of the emotional body only leads to further congregation of unresolved debris, which is futile if not more self-destructive.
- The decree of the Almighty God regarding judgment can simply be annunciated through the statement 'Judge no one as you would have them judge thyself.' We are all far from 'holy' and 'perfect' for judging others. In fact, if we had been exalted to such ranks of holiness we would realize that compassion is the key to harmony and bliss and not judgment! It is the very same thing that makes people insecure, even if it is not clearly pronounced in words and only insinuated through gesture, body language, or inference.
- In conclusion, as I read the recent or older emails I see that there have not been any ambiguities in methodology to resolve our inheritance issue. In fact, it seems as if ALL agree with the same thing, mainly:
 1. We do not want it to be wasted.

2. We all have grave respect for our parents who did their best to leave something for us.
 3. We are concerned about timing as to not get prolonged.
 4. We do not want to pay much (or any) money upfront.
 5. We rather keep the contingency fee as low as possible.
 6. Personally, I feel even 20% is excessive. However, we must go along with what we can.
- Under the circumstances, I believe we should not let our sister fall into separation. I am sure we all respect her for her desire for solitude, self-reflection, meditations, or whatever the case may be. However, it is her divine right to participate in these proceedings and to reap the benefit of her just inheritance. So I would like to ask her to withdraw her statement that she wishes her inheritance to go to Mahmood [although she seems to have a lot of respect for him] or Faezeh, or anyone else. This is my decision. So be it!
